Criminal Conviction Verification

Criminal conviction records are reviewed as they relate to the content and nature of work, the safety and security of the campus community and University property. A conviction does not necessarily disqualify a person and information will only be disclosed to appropriate staff on a need to know basis. Washington State Child and Adult Abuse Information Law permits employers to ask applicants to disclose specific information about any convictions for crimes against persons and findings in related actions or proceedings. This information, if applicable, must be disclosed by an applicant. For questions, please call (360)650-3774.
